MASS INTENTIONS

There have been questions as to what is acceptable to give for Mass Intentions. We would never discourage anyone from asking for a Mass Intention as they are priceless. The suggested donation, for an individual intention for daily Mass is $15 and for a collective monthly Mass intention, it's $10. A Collective Intentions Mass is celebrated every Saturday evening during the specific month.

THE PASTORALS ON SUNDAY

A week-by-week resource from the Pastoral Letters of the Bishops' of Rome, of the Second Vatican Council, and of the Bishops' Conference of the United States

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Exodus 24:2-8

This is the blood of the covenant.

Hebrews 9:11-15

Those who are called receive the promised inheritance.

Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

This is the blood of the covenant to be poured out on behalf of many.

The readings today proclaim God's covenant with us - the old covenant of Moses and the covenant of Jesus through which we are called to work for peace and justice in the world.

The Eucharist sustains and nourishes each Christian's commitment to the church's mission. In the Eucharist, where Christ shares his very person with us, we learn to share the gospel, prayer, our resources, our very selves. ♦ To The Ends of The Earth, 55

A gospel meditation for the home
May 27, 2018 – The Most Holy Trinity
Matthew 28:16-20

A common phrase that often occurs in the Bible is that activities of one sort or another are to be done “in the name of ...” In today’s gospel the disciples of Jesus are told to baptize new followers of Jesus “in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.” We all recognize this statement as the “sign of the cross.” Let’s explore what it means to do something “in the name of.”

In the Bible there are countless references to doing something “in the name of God.” When something was done in that way, God’s own presence and power was said to operate. Clearly, using God’s name in that way was not to be taken lightly. One of the Ten Commandments forbids “using God’s name in vain.” At times, faithful Jews would not even mention the name of God because of the great reverence they had for it.

When I was first taught the basics of Catholic faith, we were told that the name, Jesus, was not to be used in inappropriate ways. For example, when accidentally hitting one’s thumb with an erratic hammer blow, we were not supposed to say that name.

So, let’s get back to the command of Jesus to baptize “in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. This, of course, recalls the names often given to the three persons in the Trinitarian God. These names are drawn from the New Testament and refer to Jesus calling God “Father” or Abba and his referring to himself as God’s son. After his resurrection and ascension, to describe God’s continued presence with us, reference is made to the sending of God’s Holy Spirit to us.

To baptize using God’s name brings God’s infinite love and power into the person baptized. The words said while water flows over the newly baptized person are not just words. They are akin to the words said by God as recorded in the Book of Genesis, “Let there be light.” Baptismal words are even more creative because the baptized person is made a child of God – literally!!!! They become members of God’s own family. That’s how we can think of them and how we can think of ourselves.

So, when we ask ourselves whose family we belong to, be sure to think about your being a very important part of God’s family. Now and forever.
