A week-by-week resource from the Pastoral Letters of the Bishops' of Rome, of the Second Vatican Council, and of the Bishops' Conference of the United States.

THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom is found by those who seek her.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Those who have died in Christ will rise first; then we who are alive.

Matthew 25:1-13

The parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids.

The task of nurturing a world where peace and justice live will be forever with us. Should the church's vision of such a world be accomplished, should our lamps ever be full, maintaining it will still require vigilance and effort.

The moral challenge of interdependence concerns shaping the relationships and rules of practice which will support our common need for security, welfare, and safety. The challenge tests our idea of human community, our policy analysis, and our political will. The need to prevent nuclear war is absolutely crucial, but even if this is achieved, there is much more to be done.
