OUR GIFT TO GOD ~

“Above all, let your love for one another be constant, for love covers a multitude of sins. Be mutually hospitable without complaining. As generous distributors of God’s manifold grace, put your gifts at the service of one another each in the measure he has received.”

(1 Peter 4:8-10)

Thanks to everyone who so generously supports our parish.
Your financial support enables us to continue the on-going work of our ministry.

THE PASTORALS ON SUNDAY

A Week-by-Week Resource from the Pastoral Letters of the Bishops of Rome, of the Second Vatican Council, and of the Bishops' Conference of the United States.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

EZEKIEL 2:2-5 They shall know that a prophet has been among them.
2 CORINTHIANS 12: 7-10 When I am powerless, it is then I am strong.
MARK 1-6 No prophets are without honor except in their home towns.

The church is, has been, and always must be a prophetic voice for peace and justice. The cost has been felt in the rejection and derision of those within and out of the body of Christ who deny the competence of our bishops to speak on these issues outside of what these objectors see as "religious" issues.

[You missionaries,] you make visible the universal commitment of the church in the United States, sometimes at the cost of misunderstanding or indifference from those who lack your experience.

The Nazareth Page
A gospel meditation for the home
July 1, 2018 – 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Mark 5:21-43

Everyone experiences times of difficulty, even desperation. Relationships might be weakened, unpaid bills can come due, unexplainable pains might afflict our bodies. We all have stories of when we were pushed to the edge. Our strength and resources are simply not enough to deal with what's afflicting us. It may be something physical. It could be a relational problem with a spouse, a close friend or one of our children. It can be almost anything that causes us to cry out, "I cannot do this!" At that moment we feel that we lack the strength and stamina to deal with what's facing us.

A while back I heard about one of those moments. Most of us try to keep an on-going accurate account of personal financial reserves. Then comes the moment of trial, the moment of truth when we receive a notice that our bank account has reached zero – of even worse – a minus number. Our heart skips a beat and our throat is suddenly dry. We stare into space while wondering how we (and our family) will survive this unexpected situation. Money, after all, is closely connected with power. If we are suddenly in "red ink," well, we wonder about survival. Not only for us personally, but others with who may be dependent on us.

This feeling of desperation is evidenced in today's gospel. A father is deeply worried about the survival of his daughter. A woman is afflicted with a condition that, while she has sought medical help, continues to persist. She is being drained of her life blood and her financial resources. Both the father and the woman are desperate.

Both seek the help of Jesus. Both are surprised not only by what he does but how he helps them. The woman merely "touches his clothing" and she is restored to health. The father's daughter is brought back to life not immediately but later on. Jesus seems to have his own time table for helping the desperate family.

So, what's the message for us? First, seek help from Jesus. God is always on our side. Second, be patient. Help can be given to us but not always in the way we expect. Sometimes it takes time. Sometimes it comes in surprising ways. This is partly what it means "to keep the faith."

Maria Goretti

Witness the Mercy of a Young Martyr

Persevering faith, sacrificial love, and extraordinary mercy. This is the story of eleven-year-old Maria Goretti, one of the Church's youngest martyrs and canonized saints. You're sure to be inspired by this young girl's unwavering commitment to Christ and her family's heroic faithfulness amidst tragedy.

"Perfect for families . . . Maria was such an amazing soul. We can all work hard to grow in the direction she was living."
