MARRIAGE MATTERS

The Gift of Fatherhood

In our current culture, the gift of Fatherhood is certainly underappreciated and taken for granted. This weekend's readings help us reflect on the creative action of God the Father, and his relationship with His Son, Jesus. We are reminded of the masculine virtues and dignity of Fatherhood! Good fathers:

- Give life to those around them.
- Love to provide abundantly for their families.
- Spend their strength on those they love.
- Stand firm and steady in adversity.

Husbands, as you reflect on your fatherhood (physical and/or spiritual) today, thank your wife for giving you this great gift! Wives, take some time today to affirm your husband's masculine, fatherly gifts!

OUR GIFT TO GOD ~

“Above all, let your love for one another be constant, for love covers a multitude of sins. Be mutually hospitable without complaining. As generous distributors of God’s manifold grace, put your gifts at the service of one another each in the measure he has received.”

(1 Peter 4:8-10)

Thanks to everyone who so generously supports our parish.
Your financial support enables us to continue the on-going work of our ministry.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today’s Gospel Jesus talks about life with his Father and the Spirit. He tells his disciples that what belongs to the Father belongs to him, and that the Spirit will take from what is his and give it to them. Jesus helps us understand that the relationship between Father, Son and Spirit is one of perfect sharing and loving generosity. This shared life is the foundation for what we now understand as part of living life in the Trinity. The abundant generosity of those who are good stewards of the gifts entrusted to them give us a glimpse into the love of the Triune God. Does the extent of our generosity give others a glimpse of God’s life within us?

THE PASTORALS ON SUNDAY

A week-by-week resource from the Pastoral Letters of the Bishops of Rome, of the Second Vatican Council, and of the Bishops' Conference of the United States

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST SUNDAY

Genesis 14:18-20 Melchizedek brought out bread and wine.
1 Corinthians 11:23-26 Do this in remembrance of me.
Luke 9:11-17 Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?

Jesus gives us the nourishment necessary to carry out his mission. We decide if we are to thrive on his food using this spiritual energy to build his kingdom or if we are to become afflicted with the obesity of an exclusively inwardly-directed spirituality.

The Eucharistic celebration challenges us to bring Christ into our social, economic and political life so that through the grace of God we may help to eradicate the causes and expressions of injustice, including sexism and racism. To share in the body and blood of Christ is to experience the restoration of human dignity and the freedom to follow our unique calling in the Lord, for "through the sacraments, especially the holy eucharist, there is communicated and nourished that charity toward God and [humanity] which is the soul of the entire apostolate" (Lumen Gentium, 33). ♦Partners in the Mystery of Redemption, 204

June 16, 2019 – The Most Holy Trinity
John 16:12-15

While it is surely a challenge for us to attempt to understand God as a Trinity, there are some wonderful matters worthy of our thought as we try to grasp this, perhaps the most profound of the truths of our Christian faith. In fact, as soon as we think we fully understand God we are surely wrong. Still, let's float a few ideas which, while not "the last word," they can serve as a few first words of partial understanding.

Let's begin with the thought that there is diversity yet unity within God. And in that diversity, there is total agreement, complicity and cooperation. An early heresy in the church claimed that there were two gods, a harsh and fearful god of the Old Testament and a loving God of the New Testament. This erroneous belief about God might have contributed to the spread of anti-Semitism, even among Christians. In response to this error, while there are certainly a variety of descriptions of the divine scattered through Holy Scripture, there is no foundation to believe that they describe the actions of two different deities. God is One.

Further, there are many references in the New Testament to there being total agreement or oneness between Christ and Abba, the Father, as well as God's Spirit, who is given more attention after the Ascension of Christ. We sense this oneness of God in the gospel reading for today. To use a human image, God's Kingdom is ruled by committee, but there is no need for there to be debate or "voting" within God. God's ways with us are consistently loving and always merciful, a major theme of Pope Francis.

In fact, it is more accurate to think of God's life as loving than anything else. The best (and most accurate) description of God is love! God has always been loving (even before creation) and will continue to love forever. God's love is between the three persons in God. St. Augustine put it this way: One person in God loves, another is the beloved and the third is the love between them. There is, however, no first, second and third in this loving existence within God. It's all happening simultaneously – and it has always been that way. I know, that's hard to imagine but certainly worth thinking about.

Finally, from that divine eternal loving, you and I came into being. God loved and we exist! Why do we exist? Perhaps one way to respond would be to say that God wants to share life with others. That's what "loving" means. Not just human life but, as the church teaches, participation in God's life. A good prayer for this Sunday: Thank you God for sharing your love and creating us.
