THE PASTORALS ON SUNDAY

A week-by-week resource from the Pastoral Letters of the Bishops of Rome, of the Second Vatican Council, and of the Bishops' Conference of the United States

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Genesis 18:20-32      For the sake of those ten I will not destroy it.
Colossians 2:12-14    God gave you new life in the company of Christ.
Luke 11:1-13         Ask and you shall receive.

The pastoral on mission addresses the gospel's expression of the magnanimous and passionate love which God has for each of us. The pastoral on peace and Gaudium et Spes are a reflection of Abraham's argument as he pleads for the Lord to spare Sodom. The loss of any life through the injustice of war is deplorable, but to sacrifice innocent lives as a means to an end is an insult to God whose love and compassion for us is endless.

The lives of innocent persons may never be taken directly, regardless of the purpose alleged for doing so. To wage truly "total" war is by definition to take huge numbers of innocent lives. Just response to aggression must be discriminate; it must be directed against unjust aggressors, not against innocent people caught up in a war not of their making.

◆The Challenge of Peace, 104

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Martha and Mary are the focus of this weekend's Gospel, which abounds with rich themes about hospitality, service, and finding the right balance between action and prayerful attention to the Lord. Christians who are good stewards of their faith life realize that if they are too busy to enjoy peaceful, private time with the Lord, then something is out of balance in their spiritual lives. If we make time for Mass, but then carry on with our busy schedules without prayer, meditation and reflection, we are missing out. If we find ourselves anxious and harried by life's routines, could it be a sign that something in our spiritual life needs some serious attention?

BEHOLD THIS HEART

What can we do about the profound crisis in the Church?

Billings Catholic Radio invites you to BEHOLD THIS HEART, *Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, for healing and justice. Our Lord asked us to do reparation to His Sacred Heart in His words to Saint Margaret Mary. Because we are members of Christ, by uniting our prayers, works and sufferings to those of Jesus, our offerings become part of the work of our Lord which was to make reparation for the sins of the whole world. Make this conference October 4th & 5th, part of your Year of Prayer, Penance, and Reparation! Featuring Fr. Wade Menezes and Catholic recording artist Donna Cori Gibson. Don't miss the discount with early registration! July 21, 2019 – 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 10:38-42

Women were thought of as second-class in the time of Jesus. There are not a few instances in the gospels where their names are not even mentioned, although they should have been. What was the name of the woman at the well? The woman accused of adultery? The woman who anointed the feet of Jesus? There are, however, instances when women are named. Today's gospel is one of those times. As soon as Martha and Mary are mentioned, many know what follows.

I have heard women say that Martha is the patron saint of hard-working women. She does what she is supposed to do around the home. Most likely this means preparing food, cleaning floors and washing clothes. We assume that she does this day after day, year after year. She lives with her sister, Mary, who appears not to help her by doing her fair share of the housework. On one occasion, Jesus, a good friend of their family, is visiting and talking about things that interest him. Mary wants to be close to him and is quite content to sit at his feet (the position of a student) attentive to his every word. While Martha scurries here and there, cooking, dusting and hanging up the day's laundry.

Then Jesus asks which of the two women is doing the right thing, the best thing? And he answers his own question. Mary, of course. Hearing this, Martha's eyes turn heavenward and she says, "What?" (And maybe something else too.)

Here's one way to think about what seems a somewhat odd answer of Jesus. The key sentence is in what Jesus says about Martha. She is "anxious and worried about many things." Well, we can all understand that! How often are our daily lives filled with worry and anxiety over a lot of things? Personal health, money for necessities, survival, our kids, grandchildren, ailing relatives, friends, the difficulties experienced by refugees, those who go to bed hungry each night, the state of the world.

Maybe what Jesus is saying is that we can use a little more trust in God in our lives. Maybe we need to take a time-out from working all the time and simply "rest in God." Excessive stress can wear us down, even kill us. In reality, we all need to work from time to time. But not all the time. God created the Sabbath as a day of rest. Maybe the "better part" of life comes to us when we step away from all that makes us anxious and worried and we simply enjoy God's presence. Breathe easily. And give thanks.
