THE PASTORALS ON SUNDAY

A week-by-week resource from the Pastoral Letters of the Bishops of Rome, of the Second Vatican Council, and of the Bishops' Conference of the United States

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23

Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Luke 12:13-21

◆Nothing is more practical than finding God, than falling in Love in an absolute, final way. What you are in love with, what seizes your imagination, will affect everything. It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning, what you do with your evening & weekends, what you read, and whom you know and also what breaks your heart and what amazes you with joy and gratitude. Fall in Love, stay in love, and it will decide everything. If someone were to look at your life, what or whom would they believe you are in love with, or have faith in? Consider your gifts such as volunteering in your parish.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

A prominent theme in today's Gospel parable is generosity. Late at night, a sleepy friend responds to his neighbor's request for food for an unexpected guest. Jesus suggests that it would be unthinkable for a friend to deny a friend in need. A friend would most certainly give what is asked and more. Through this story, Jesus illustrates God's generosity. Good stewards realize the extraordinary love and graciousness with which God showers us. We need never convince God to be generous. God is already that generous friend. His abundant love bathes us in goodness. This week, prayerfully reflect on God's generosity to us. What should our response be to that generosity?

MARRIAGE MATTERS

I don't know how to pray!

Have you ever been intimidated at the prospect of praying with your spouse? If so, you are not alone. However, the Gospel teaches us this week that it is not the perfect prayer that rises to God, but rather, the persisting prayer.

Prayer between spouses is the last frontier of intimacy that couples endeavor, but it is so crucial for growth in the Sacrament of Matrimony. If prayer is new with your spouse or uncomfortable, you are not alone Try the following to start:

- Praying one "Our Father" together before going to sleep.
- Asking Jesus to bless your spouse's day at work before he or she leaves in the morning.
- Take 2 minutes to each share your needs and end with a "Hail Mary".

BOX TOPS FOR EDUCATION

St. Matthew's school does collect box tops but not Campbell's soup labels. Please put them in the basket in the entryway to be taken to the school.

Thank you to my friends In Jesus Christ,

I wish to take this time to thank each and every one of you for your prayers, concern, and hugs in helping me with the struggle to fight this cancer. I have some wonderful doctors that are tops in my care and a gracious caring and giving staff. They are exceptional at their jobs in warm caring and advice to continue the fight! My dear husband and family give me moral support and love and words of encouragement to keep my attitude strong and focused.

May God bless all of you for your generous concern.

I do think Father Stan is a bit nervous about losing his #1 spot in baldness, as he keeps telling me about wigs!?! Love to all of you,

Sincerely with warm regards, Carol & Bruce Trimble

THE FOUNDATION OF THE DIOCESE OF HELENA

Have you reached age 70½? Do you have a traditional IRA account? Then you know you have to take what's called a "Required Minimum Distribution" or RMD each year, and it's taxable to you.

Now there's a way to send your RMD to the Church, which meets both the IRS requirements and your charitable giving plans to the Church. An added bonus – the distribution is not taxable to you.

To learn more, contact Jeanne Saarinen at The Foundation for the Diocese of Helena, Inc., (406) 389-7051, jsaarinen@diocesehelena.org or visit www.fdoh.org.

If you're a do-it-yourselfer, simply Google "IRA Charitable Rollover" for a plethora of information.

Your Catholic Foundation's mission is to serve and strengthen the people, parishes, ministries, and apostolic mission of the Diocese of Helena. Learn more at www.fdoh.org.

RISEN CHRIST GIFT SHOP

Your Risen Christ Gift Ministry has gifts available for Confirmation, Baptism and First Communion such as small scapulars, cross necklaces, rosaries, key chains, and holy water fonts. Check it out for yourself! Please see Andrea Wright or Connie McCubbins before or after weekend Masses, or the office during the week.

LENDING LIBRARY

In the Social Area, you will find a shelf with Catholic books available to you. Feel free to borrow them to increase your knowledge of the Catholic faith. After you are done reading it, bring it back for others to use. If you have a book worthy of sharing, just place it on the shelf. We are grateful for our parishioner's generosity to make these books available to all our parish community.

RISEN CHRIST PRAYER LINE

Call Lavine Heuscher, 752-4007, to ask the Risen Christ Prayer Line to pray for individuals or community intentions or to join this important ministry.

FORMING A COMPASSIONATE COMMUNITY

If there is a birth, a sickness or a death in our parish community, or that of someone you know, please call Mary Sonju, 250-8610. She will send a card.

Ignatius of Loyola

A Noble Knight of God

This modern take on the story of Saint Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, often called “the saint of second chances,” is an incisive and thrilling look at the life of the real man behind the legend.

Luke 11:1-13

It is said that our prayer life provides a window to our souls. One of our family customs is to take turns leading the prayer before meals. Especially when our older children (who live elsewhere) are present for a family meal, I often nominate one or another of them (especially the one I might be worried about) to lead the prayer. This is my ingenious way of finding out what's going on inside them. Often worries are expressed or fears are named in their prayers. In other words, I find out things about them and their lives that would ordinarily be secret but come forth in prayer. Sometimes, they will simply recite the standard, "Bless us O Lord ..." and then I worry even more.

Today's gospel offers us "the Lord's Prayer" or the prayer that Jesus gave us as his own. Within it is held a precious message about how Jesus (and we, his followers) are to pray. What should be our attitude while we pray, our hopes and expectations, our deeper desires? How should we address God, the Creator of all that is, the incredibly magnificent Universe, the Earth, our home, and all of us who have lived here, live here now and will live here. That God who became one of us, took our nature, walked our pathways, ate and drank with us and gave his all for us. Yes, that God. How should we address that God?

Begin, Jesus says, by using the name of God he found best. The name "Abba." We come close to the meaning of that name with our word, "Dad" or "Mom." It's a word implying closeness and intimacy, familiarity, trust and endearment. Love. We pray that we desire nothing other than what God does: the way of God, the reality of God and the life of God to spread and be present everywhere. We ask that this come about. We want what God wants. Why would we want otherwise?

We ask for nourishment of body and mind and soul. And we say without reservation that we want nothing to come between us and others, just as God does. We want to forgive as God forgives. Generously, fully, without demands, without limit. And finally, we ask in confidence (hopefully) that we will not be destroyed by some final act of decimation. That we be held in existence forever in God, and with God and with all those God has created.

The Our Father is a daring prayer, a bold prayer, and might even be considered reckless or disrespectful were it not given to us by the One who surely knew it was the very best way to pray to God.
