“Above all, let your love for one another be constant, for love covers a multitude of sins. Be mutually hospitable without complaining. As generous distributors of God’s manifold grace, put your gifts at the service of one another each in the measure he has received.”

(1 Peter 4:8-10)

Thanks to everyone who so generously supports our parish.
Your financial support enables us to continue the on-going work of our ministry.

My dear friends in Risen Christ Parish,

Thanks to all for prayers for me to get my act together and to get well! It has been a long year, yet I know that there are many behind me and helping me to succeed!

I'm doing my best to work hard and keep that devil away, -- I have lots to do YET!
God bless you all and have a wonderful Christmas, Carol Trimble

MARRIAGE MATTERS

What will you give the Christ Child?

As we celebrate Epiphany, we reflect on the sacrifice and generosity of the wise men. The Gospel tells us that they “opened their treasures” for Jesus. While gold, frankincense and myrrh are symbolic of Jesus’ future, they also represent the best the Kings have to offer. In marriage, we give our best to Jesus when we sacrifice our time and money to prioritize our marriage. What does that look like?

- Attending regular marriage enrichment events
- Praying with our spouse daily
- Sharing conversation with our spouse instead of watching Netflix
- Forgiving our spouse when they need it
- Asking for forgiveness when appropriate

For practical ways to accomplish all of these, go to www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
