FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 11, 2021

Amos 7:12-15

Ephesians 1:3-14

Mark 6:7-13

PRACTICE OF FAITH

Most people seem to need so many things. They are sure to carry cell phones to connect with the world and one another as well as purses and wallets filled with a number of items. Jesus asked his closest friends to travel lightly as they evangelize: “no food, no sack, no money in their belts.” How many items do you need when you leave the house for the day? Jesus asks us to live simply and not be dependent on useless things. ♦Evaluate with your family which possessions are never used. Consider offering them to thrift shops, Goodwill, or Salvation Army stores that assist those in need. ♦Think about your current amount of credit card debt. If unable to pay off your balance monthly, meet with a financial adviser to determine how to decrease your dependence on credit to make daily purchases. ♦Pray over how much money is wasted needlessly because of unhealthy choices.

JOHN PAUL II IN AMERICA: UNITING A CONTINENT

The papacy of St. John Paul II left an indelible mark on our homeland. Driven a conviction to unite the Americas under the patronage of Our Lady of Guadalupe, he traveled from Argentina all the way to Alaska, shaping a generation and changing history along the way. In celebration of our country this week, enjoy this film documenting the journeys of John Paul II, the "Pilgrim Pope."

FORMED NOW! CATHOLIC SPIRITUALITY AND BASEBALL

What better time to discuss America's favorite pastime than the week of July 4? Believe it or not, baseball can shed much light on our spiritual lives through its familiar images. In this video, Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. Michael Barber discuss how these seemingly opposite topics relate to one another. After watching this, you'll be reminded of your mission: to be safe at home!

LISTEN

WALKING THROUGH THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW OF DEATH BY ADM. JEREMIAH DENTON

Admiral Jeremiah Denton spent over seven years as a prisoner of war in Vietnam. In this moving presentation, he recalls how, through the power of prayer, he withstood extreme torture rather than betray God or the U.S.A. For his valor, he was awarded the Purple Heart, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, the Navy Cross, and the POW Medal. He is now a champion of various humanitarian causes. Enjoy his testimony in this talk!

The Nazareth Page
A gospel meditation for your home
July 4, 2021 – 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Mark 6:1-6

He left as the son of Joseph. He returned as the son of God. He had changed in their eyes. And his former neighbors didn't like this. But that's not so surprising. Many of us are uncomfortable with change, especially when it's with people we thought we knew.

That is the reaction which is at the heart of today's gospel. Jesus grew up in the relatively small village called Nazareth. It was the kind of place where everyone knew everyone who lived there. They had formed opinions of each other. Jesus had left those familiar surroundings to begin his public life. We are not given exact ages, but he was gone long enough to have had new experiences, and – as was noted – he had changed.

No doubt, he expected to be received with respect as he spoke about the scriptures that were read in the synagogue upon his return. But that didn't happen. They wanted his words to match their expectations. They didn't want something new. They would be quite content to hear what they already believed. Not a challenge to their conventional views. But that was not the way Jesus operated. He wanted them to know that things were changing. In fact, change had already begun. And he was part of that change.

Accepting change is often difficult. Take those of us who are parents. We personally perceive the many changes that happen over the years in our children. Good parents will remain supportive year after year. This would be in contrast to the people of Nazareth in today's gospel. They wanted Jesus to stay the same as he was as a young boy.

A similar comment can be made about married couples. Wives and husbands also change over the years. I recall with a smile a conversation supposedly between a couple married many years. The husband complains, "You don't bake bread like my mother did," To which she responds, "And you don't make dough like my dad did." This exchange is about expectations ... and reality.

Genuine love rests on the realized present, not on the long-gone past. It not only accepts the positive changes that happen in people, but also welcomes them. This is how families endure the test of time. It is also the key to how friendships endure, and how communities survive the inevitable changes that come through time. Recall the wise words of the esteemed Catholic theologian, Saint John Henry Newman. "To live is to change and to change often is to become more perfect."
