BEREAVEMENT GROUP

Please join Risen Christ and St. Matthew parishes for an adult bereavement group. You may call the parish office, 752-6788, with your name and number and the group leader will call you back. Whether your loss is new or many years old, this group may be a blessing for you.

This ten-week session will resume meeting at Risen Christ Parish on Thursday evenings, 7:00 pm beginning on May 12 through July 14, 2022.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today’s Gospel we witness the last evening Jesus spends with his disciples before his death. He has already made it clear that his followers will show their love for him by serving others. To live that kind of love, they will need the active presence of God in their midst. Jesus tells his disciples that he and his Father will come and make their home with them. He also tells them that the Holy Spirit will be among them to teach them and remind them of all that Jesus had taught. Good stewards recognize that God is in their midst and that the Holy Spirit is guiding them. How often do we acknowledge God’s presence in our lives? How often do we allow the Holy Spirit to guide us?

TO ALL NEW PARISHIONERS

We want to take a moment to extend a very warm welcome to everyone who's visiting us for the first time this weekend. Whether you're just having a look, or are searching for a place to worship, we're delighted to have you here.

PRACTICE OF CHARITY

Jesus gave his life to gather people and bring them into eternal union with God and each other. Stephen imitated the Lord, following him even into death.

♦Will you let love lead you that far? How do you limit your love for others, for God, and for yourself?

♦Slowly reread the Gospel passage. What obstacles to unity do you see in your family? What obstacles to unity do you see in your community? How do you contribute to disunity and division? Take ownership of that failure, and apologize to someone you may have harmed because of it.

♦Make a list of all the martyrs you can think of. Choose one and learn more about that person. How did that person imitate Christ?

SIGNS OF THE SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit goes by a few different names in Scripture and in Church teaching, although Holy Spirit is the most common. He is also known as the Paraclete, which the Catechism explains as “he who is called to one’s side,” or the Advocate. He is also known as consoler, sanctifier, and Spirit of truth, among other lesser-known titles found in the Acts of the Apostles and the Epistles of St. Paul.

Some still use the name “Holy Ghost” when referring to the Holy Spirit. This was the name for the third person of the Trinity used until the 1960s when parts of the Mass began being celebrated in English rather than Latin. Because Scripture translations used “Holy Spirit” instead of “Holy Ghost,” it was thought that using the Holy Spirit reference throughout all worship and prayer would be more consistent with Scripture. Also, there was a feeling that “Ghost” conjured up haunting images from modern English. The word “Spirit symbolizes the wind or breath of God.

May 22nd, 2022 – Sixth Sunday of Easter

John 14:23-29

I am old enough to remember when we Catholics said the Sign of the Cross, we ended it with calling the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity, the Holy Ghost. To an impressionable youngster that I was, this raised all sorts of questions because I knew about ghosts that inhabited haunted houses and scary stories. And I even wondered about whether there might be a ghost living in our basement. I never went down there alone.

But times changed and we were told to extract the Holy Ghost from our prayers and replace it with someone called "the Holy Spirit." I was happy to dismiss talk about the ghost, although I can't say that its replacement (the Holy Spirit) initiated more clarity. Less, in fact, because at least I know something about ghosts and very little about spirits.

Over the years, I grew accustomed to mention of the Holy Spirit, although I cannot admit to knowing much more than this divine person was number three. Catholic schools often had special Masses to begin the school year during which we prayed that the Holy Spirit would inspire us to be better students. Especially before exams.

In our parish church a large stained-glass window pictured God in heaven. There was an older looking man with white beard (the Father) sitting next to a younger man (the Son) and above them floated a large bird (I was told it was the Holy Spirit). Later, as a theologian, I concluded that this God image likely caused more confusion than clarity.

So, this Sunday we are given a gospel passage where Jesus tells his disciples that after he departs, the Holy Spirit will be sent to continue his teaching mission. Recently I read a poem that concluded with a poet's words that went something like this: The third was the Holy Ghost, that's the one I liked the most. This clever use of language prompted me to give a little more thought to my own understanding of God's Spirit as present among us and in us right now.

Here are a few thoughts that came to me. First, some (maybe all) of the truthfulness of my words here come in part because I am being "inspired" by the Holy Spirit. Also, are the words of my wife telling me to place my dirty laundry in the basket and to wash my hands before dinner. In addition, the good insights I gain from my repeated reading of today's gospel. And any other truths about my life I receive today. It all comes through the help given me by God's Spirit who dwells in me, in you, and in all truthful people.
