PLEASE CONSIDER SHARING YOUR TIME & TALENT

A good thought for the day might be to ask ourselves if we have a small gift, talent or ability that we have never used to serve others. How could our gifts, talents and abilities be put to good use for our parish family or the larger community that we live in? The gifts Jesus gives to us are not meant just for our own benefit. Our gifts were given to us, to be shared with others too.

There are many opportunities in your parish to sign up for volunteering. Please check in at the parish office or pick up a Time & Talent form in the foyer of the church.

MULTIPLYING THE LOAVES AND FISH

The Gospels narrate events that anticipated the Eucharist. The miracle of the loaves and fish, reported in all four Gospels, prefigured the unique abundance of the Eucharist. The miracle of changing water into wine at the wedding feast in Cana manifested the divine glory of Jesus and the heavenly wedding feast in which we share at every Eucharist.

In his dialogue with the people at Capernaum, Christ used his miracle of multiplying the loaves of bread as the occasion to describe himself as the Bread of Life: “I am the living bread that came down from heaven... Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you” (Jn. 6:51, 53).

PRACTICE OF CHARITY

Following Christ requires total commitment. The longer the commitment is delayed, the harder it becomes to learn how to be a good disciple and the less likely the individual is to follow Jesus at all. James and John certainly had much to learn about discipleship!

◆Whom do you find difficult to love? Imagine Jesus sitting beside you. How would you talk to each other about this difficulty?

◆Do you know someone who is in the seminary or entering religious life? Send that person a note of support and pray for him or her throughout the week.

◆Reflect on Galatians 5:13-26 (an extension of the second reading). In what ways have you welcomed the Spirit into your life? In what ways are you still enslaved to things that are harmful or even evil?

WALK THE WALK: FOLLOWING CHRIST AS HIS DISCIPLE BY DR. TIM GRAY

Being a disciple of Jesus has always been synonymous with being a Christian. From the Scriptures and from his own experience, Dr. Tim Gray explains how Christian discipleship calls us to follow in the footsteps of Christ as engaged participants in God's plan. In doing so, we bear witness to the Lord in our families,

June 19th, 2022 – Body and Blood of Christ
Luke 9:11-17

When reading today's gospel, I thought about the old saying, "There's no such thing as a free lunch." In point of fact, there was a free lunch when Jesus provided one, featuring fish and bread. Food from the land and food from the sea. Very basic fare in the time of Jesus. I'll bet that it was delicious, too. Out of generosity, he offered them nourishment for their minds through his words, and food for their bodies.

Today we take time to reflect of the continued presence of Jesus in the sacrament of the Eucharist. Bread and wine are transformed into the body and blood of Christ. In sacramental form, Jesus remains personally present to us. One important question remains: Are we present to him?

Notice the sequence of events mentioned in this miraculous feeding of the multitude, something also at the heart of celebrating the Eucharist. Basically, a miracle happens through three actions: blessing, breaking and sharing.

The act of blessing acknowledges the presence of God's power to create something new. Like at the very beginning of time, described so poetically in the first part of the Book of Genesis. In the beginning, God acted. And all reality aside from God came into being.

But God's involvement with and in creation didn't end back then. In fact, it continues every day thereafter. Today we are blessed by incredible scientific narratives about how the universe, the galaxies, the stars, the planets and eventually you and I came to be. Scientists can describe an amazing process of how star dust became human flesh. We are "blessed" into existence and life now and forever by God.

Then creation (and bread) is "broken" so that it can become many. Jesus said that his body was for us and for all. Certainly, a dramatic way of describing creation as a gift from God's boundless generosity that involves the presence of many others. Not an infinite number, but approaching it.

And finally, created life is to be shared. And here's something I noticed as I read today's gospel: sharing does not diminish the original bounty (five loaves and two fish) but actually multiplies it. Fourteen baskets of bread and fish. Yes, it's a paradox, like the more we give, the more we receive. Or like what is captured in the simple phrase: Giving is receiving.
