PLEASE CONSIDER SHARING YOUR TIME & TALENT

A good thought for the day might be to ask ourselves if we have a small gift, talent or ability that we have never used to serve others. How could our gifts, talents and abilities be put to good use for our parish family or the larger community that we live in? The gifts Jesus gives to us are not meant just for our own benefit. Our gifts were given to us, to be shared with others too.

Risen Christ is strengthened & enriched by the participation of our members!

There are many opportunities in your parish to sign up for volunteering. Please check in at the parish office or pick up a Time & Talent form in the foyer of the church.

$50K Match in Support of Our Priests & Seminarians

The Foundation for the Diocese of Helena is filled with hope because generous donors have offered a $50,000 match for donations given to the Foundation’s Priestly Formation and Development Endowment. This fund supports our seminarians, priestly formation and priestly retirement.

Timing is critical! We need more priests; we are all feeling the shortage, but we are not powerless. We can support the 15 seminarians who have answered God’s call!

Please help us receive this match. Make your donation by September 1st. Go online to fdoh.org to make an online contribution or send your check to:
FDOH | PO Box 1729 | Helena, MT 59624.

Your support is a blessed gift!

If you would like to know how your donation can maximize your Montana tax savings, please reach out to Executive Director Daniel Thies at dthies@diocesehelena.org or call (406)389-7051.

READINGS FOR THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, JULY 3, 2022

Isaiah 66:10-14c

Galatians 6:14-18

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

PRACTICE OF HOPE

These readings fill us with hope. Jesus shares his power to cast out evil in all its forms. St. Paul participates in this life-saving power and bravely overcomes the hardship it brings. Isaiah's prophecy inspires us to strive for that kingdom in which God's love consoles, nurtures, and protects us forever.

♦Imagine that you are one of the disciples Jesus sent out. What do you say and do? What challenges do you meet? What further help do you need from the Lord?

♦Missionary work is often called the propagation of the faith. Learn more about how your local parish or diocese supports the propagation of the faith. How can you also support this work?

♦Read about St. Francis Xavier, this patron saint of missionaries. Ask for his intercession on behalf of those striving throughout the world to share Christ's love with new people.

FIRST HOLY MARTYRS OF THE HOLY ROMAN CHURCH – FEAST DAY JUNE 30

These early Christians were the first persecuted in mass by the Emperor Nero in the year 64 A.D., before the martyrdom of Saints Peter and Paul. Nero was widely believed to have caused the fire that burned down much of Rome in that same year. He blamed the fire on Christians and put them to death, many by crucifixion, being fed to the wild animals in the circus, or by being tied to posts and lit up as human torches.

These Holy martyrs were called the “Disciples of the Apostles” and their firmness in the face of their gruesome deaths was a powerful testimony that led to many conversions in the early Roman Church. These were all early Christians in Rome within a dozen or so years after the death of Jesus, though they were not the converts of the “Apostle of the Gentiles” Romans 15:20. Paul had not yet visited them at the time he wrote his great letter in 57-58 A.D.

In July of 64 A.D., more than half of Rome was destroyed by fire. Rumor blamed the tragedy on Nero, who wanted to enlarge his palace. He shifted the blame by accusing the Christians. According to the Historian Tacitus, many Christians were put to death because of their “hatred of the human race”. Peter and Paul were probably among the victims of this time. Eventually Nero was threatened by an army revolt and condemned to death by the senate and committed suicide in 68 A.D. at the age of 31 because of these, the first of Christian martyrs being falsely blamed.

Don't forget to call upon the First Holy Martyrs of the Holy Roman Church as they are always willing to help us, if only we call upon them for assistance.

WATCH

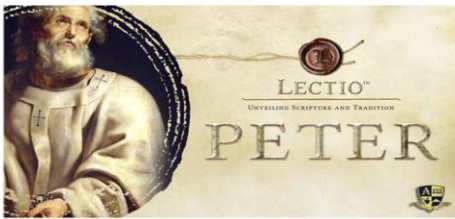

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!

LEARN

LECTIO: PETER: EPISODE 1: PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the “rock” upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter in this Lectio series.

LISTEN

SET ALL AFIRE

It is no stretch to say that Peter and Paul set the world afire with the Gospel message. In honor of these apostles, enjoy this one-of-a-kind presentation that includes seven segments covering some of the most important topics in the Church today. Taken from many of our most powerful talks, these segments are sure to inspire you to set all afire for Christ and His Church.

The Nazareth Page
A gospel meditation for your home
June 26, 2022 – Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 9:51-62

We all live in a world where the passage of time and the movement of our lives is often on our minds. Jesus spent most of his life in one place, the small village of Nazareth. But then he went on the move. In today's gospel he is departing his hometown to the main city of his time, Jerusalem. He set aside his carpenter's tools and began his public life as a traveling rabbi. He eventually believed that it would be in Jerusalem that the main events of his life would happen. So, he left his familiar surroundings to fulfil what he believed to be his calling from God.

We often think of our lives as a journey from one place to another. Sometimes the places are geographical. They can be marked on a map. Sometimes our journey in life takes us through events that are more personal, like entering certain career, beginning a marriage or having children. Some interpret a spiritual or religious meaning to their decisions in life. Like Jesus, they felt that they are called to a certain way of life. In Catholic circles this was sometimes called "a vocation."

For centuries the language of vocation in Catholicism was focused on religious roles, like that of a priest, or living in a vowed religious community as a brother or nun. When I was in Catholic school, there was often talk about whether one had one of those "vocations." For awhile I imagined I did, and entered a seminary for a while. That didn't work out, so I "returned to the "world." I wondered that in departing seminary life, had I lost my vocation? Fortunately, at that time the church's understanding of these matters was changing. Definitely for the better.

About that time Vatican II was in session. One of its best ideas expanded the notion of vocation to include the lives of all. My own appreciation of a "religious" vocation expanded to include being an educator, a husband, a father and now a grandfather. All of those roles were holy. They marked the passage of my religious vocation, my life's sacred journey.

And we reflect on the journey of Jesus from his hometown to Jerusalem, we might recall our own calling, our personal religious pilgrimage through life. And be reminded that our holiness is formed in the context of our unique passage through life. When we were created, we might say that God had plans for each of us. We were all being called to live holy lives in a thousand different places and in a thousand different ways.
