PRIOR TO THE MASS

- ◆We should be predisposed to participate fully in the Mass, to sing and to respond, to anticipate the reception of our Lord in Holy Communion. If we are in a state of mortal sin, we should go to confession prior to the Mass.
- ◆We should abstain from food and drink, except for water and medicine, at least one hour before receiving Holy Communion.
- ◆We should dress appropriately.
- ◆We should not be late for the start of Mass. It is good to have some minutes of prayerful silence before the Mass actually starts.
- ◆Upon entering the church or chapel, we have come into a holy place. As such, we should do the following:
 - Maintain silence. Be in a prayerful posture.
 - Turn off cell phones and other gadgets.
 - Genuflect, if able or bow in front of the Blessed Sacrament before going into the pew.

Matthew 10:26-33

PRACTICE OF HOPE

“Fear no one...What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light.” Jesus seeks to draw his followers out of fear and spur them to trust and hope in him. Rooted in the promise of eternal life with God, Christian hope flourishes even despite hardship. With such faith and hope, Christians can proclaim the good news “on the housetops.”

◆Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Blessed Josephine Bakhita, and Edith Stein are examples of people who showed hope despite suffering. Find and read one of their stories.

◆Hope is found, as well, in everyday, seemingly inconsequential acts; for someone suffering from depression, getting out of bed can be an expression of hope. This week, take time to identify and become more deliberate about any hopeful actions you complete automatically, without realizing it.

WHY SHOULD I WEAR A ST. BENEDICT MEDAL?

The medal is a way to obtain God's blessings and protection through the intercession of St. Benedict. Wearing it is a way to remind ourselves of our life in Christ and the promises of heaven. It is a form of prayer and yet another way we can incorporate God into our daily lives.

According to the Order of St. Benedict, the medal is a prayer of exorcism against Satan, a prayer for strength in time of temptation, a prayer for peace among ourselves and among the nations of the world, a prayer that the Cross of Christ be our light and guide, a prayer of firm rejection of all that is evil, a prayer of petition that we may with Christian courage 'walk in God's ways, with the Gospel as our guide,' as St. Benedict urges us.

After reading that powerful description of the prayer of the St. Benedict Medal, I am sure that you will agree it is a "weapon" Christians need in our day and age. We are faced with evil and temptation. Anything we can use to help us in our battle will encourage and strengthen us in our fight!

The Nazareth Page
A gospel meditation for your home
June 18, 2023 – Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 9:36-10:8

I grew up in the shadow of one of America's great cities, Chicago, Illinois. Seasons of the year for me were divided into three parts: baseball in the summer, football in the fall and basketball in winter and spring. My favorite was baseball because my dad would occasionally take me to Comiskey Park where our favorite team, the Chicago White-ox would battle teams from other parts of the country – the Red Sox, the Tigers, and the fiercest of opponents, the Yankees.

It took us at most an hour to drive from our home to when we entered the confines of Comiskey Park on Chicago's southside. We had to be on our seats by the first pitch. It was almost a sin to be late. And we always stayed until the last out. And we never had to miss any of the action as vendors carrying ice cold beer and cokes and peanuts wandered among the fans selling the "needed" nourishment. I even recall having my first beer there.

Gametime was for me always very special and intense, maybe even sacred. Every pitch and every hit filled my consciousness. I didn't want to miss a single moment of the game and while I was not a player on the field, fans in attendance were made to feel that their enthusiasm for the home team helped determine the game's final outcome.

I recalled that early time of my life when reading today's gospel which records Jesus telling his disciples that "the kingdom was at hand." What they were hoping for, the entrance of God into their history, had begun. And they were to be a part of its enactment. They (and later you and I) were to be players in the great game of life. The "game" had begun with Jesus throwing the first pitch. And right now, we are on the field determining who will win, God or someone else.

The rules of this game are spelled out in the gospels and letters from the early church. We are all charged with helping those in need, feeding the hungry and offering drinks to the thirsty. And we know the general rules of the game for the rest. What's important is that we are not to be idle. We are to actively contribute to the outcome of God's reign here on Earth.

Each day (inning?) brings us opportunities to make good plays. And to make errors now and then. As you read this, think about how well you are playing today on the field or in the stands. Everyone has a role to play in determining the final outcome. So, play to win!
