CORPUS CHRISTI

This Sunday, the Church commemorates the solemnity of the Corpus Christi (Latin, it means the Body of Christ). The body of Christ is the living bread from heaven which he gave to us during the last supper. When we eat this bread, we proclaim the Lord's death and resurrection until he comes again. The assurance of Jesus to us is that if we live our lives following God's will and receive Jesus as our bread of life, we will be with God forever.

The Feast of Corpus Christi is a celebration of Jesus' hospitality. As we listen to today's Gospel, we encounter the welcome of Jesus who prepares a feast for us all. While we concentrate on the fact that Jesus is the Bread of Life, we also proclaim that Jesus lives within each one of us who are baptized into His Body, the Church.

In the Holy Eucharist and through our Baptism, Jesus takes up residence within each one of us. We become the very presence of Christ in our world. We carry Him into the real world every time we receive communion. We proclaim that the Lord continues to come into the world, through us. We are the Body of Christ.

Every time there is a Eucharistic celebration, the Body of Christ is made accessible and available to us. We celebrate the Eucharist as a community of faith, hope, and love. Corpus Christi is not just a memorial celebration but an experience of God's love.

Jesus' presence does make a difference in our lives when Christ becomes the center and focus of our every longing. Jesus offers us the gift of himself to lead, guide, and protect us in our journey of faith. What an awesome gift we have in Jesus. His farewell gift to the Church is that he will be with us always until the end of time.

READINGS FOR THE TENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

June 9, 2024

Genesis 3:9-15

2 Corinthians 4:13 - 5:1

Mark 3:20-35

PRACTICE OF HOPE

When have you found yourself afraid and hiding, like Adam in today's excerpt from Genesis? When have you found yourself crying out of the depths to the Lord?

◆ The story we hear in today's Old Testament passage can spark fear of a God who bans us, who puts enmity between us. It is easy to hear these words and stop there, only knowing of a God who condemns us. But let us believe and therefore speak! As we proclaim in the psalm: there is mercy and fullness of redemption with the Lord.

◆ Read the psalm several times, aloud and in silence. Let the words wash over you and sit with the Lord's mercy.

St. Boniface | Catholic Saints

Known as the "Apostle to Germany," the bishop and martyr St. Boniface worked tirelessly to renew the Church in Germany. Although his efforts ultimately bore great fruit and helped to recenter the faith of the Germans, St. Boniface often felt like a failure in his missionary work.

Montana Catholics For Life

For Babies For Mothers For Families

Family is the domestic church, the first and best place for children to learn to live out the great dignity with which each person is created. Families should be encouraged to stand by each other throughout life. They are the foundation of a strong and healthy society. With loving support, families understand and persevere through life's challenges and know that a baby, even when unexpected, does not prevent a mother from living a fulfilling and happy life.

Parents have a right to know when their child needs their support, especially when abortion is concerned. CI-128 would eliminate parental notification of abortion that is currently required in Montana, effectively shutting parents out when a young mother needs her family most, and when a baby's life is at risk.

Removal of parental notification leaves an underage mother isolated and vulnerable to any person who would pressure her to have an abortion. This opens the door for coercion, exploitation, human trafficking, and other crimes. Families are vital to the lives of their children and deserve better. Please continue to pray and spread the word. Encourage people of goodwill to decline to sign the petition to place CI-128 on the November ballot.

June 2, 2024 – Feast of the Body & Blood of Christ
Mark 14:12-26

Many of my childhood memories were created around the dinner table. Especially on special days like Christmas and Easter. While good food and drink were essential, what I mostly recall were the conversations and banter created between bites. Now as a dad and grandpa, I treasure shared meals even more.

Biblical scholars note that Jesus enjoyed communal meals too. Luke's gospel reports eleven such occasions. And we all pay special attention to his "Last Supper."

I can't recall exactly when our family created a special meal ritual that continues to this day – something we call "positives and negatives." After a meal prayer, it often begins with the oldest one there, or occasionally with the youngest. Then it proceeds all around the table according to age.

The rule is simple. Share with those gathered at least one positive and one negative thing that is going on in your life right now. It can be something very serious or something quite lite, and in our rulebook, you must have one of each. Or you can have more.

This additional "ritual" reminds us that beside the food and drink shared, so also, we share our lives, our current thoughts, concerns and challenges. Those meals become not only an opportunity to nourish our bodies, but they feed our concern for each other. Even our spirits. Occasionally there is a surprise expressed. No, almost every time we do this, there are surprises.

Today's Sunday Eucharist recalls that meal when Jesus fed not only the bodies of his closest followers, but also their souls, their spirits. In the bread broken and the wine shared at that meal, he also gave them himself, his own body, his own life.

And in memory of him and that meal, for centuries Christians continue to celebrate the sharing of his life with ours. Jesus is present not just in the proclamation of his word, not only in the reception of Eucharistic bread and wine, but also in the gathered community. As the ritual unfolds, we are reminded that "blessed are those who are called to this supper."

And this happens not just now on earth, but it is promised to us after we die. Then we will experience an eternal banquet. With lots of positives.
