ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT - Sat. 9:00-10:30 am

“Through the Power of the Holy Spirit, Christ remains with us.”

On Corpus Christi, devout Christians gather to honor the sacred body of Jesus.

It celebrates the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist—the belief that Jesus is truly present, body, blood, soul, and divinity, in the consecrated bread and wine.

PLEASE DRESS MODESTLY

Dressing modestly for Mass means choosing clothing that shows respect for the sacred space and the solemnity of the Eucharist. While there’s no strict dress code, it’s generally recommended to cover your shoulders and knees, and avoid overly revealing or tight-fitting clothing. The goal is to be respectful and avoid distracting yourself or others from the Liturgy. Reflect your reverence for God and manifest your respect for the dignity of the liturgy and for one another by dressing modestly.

Our bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity, and joy of this moment when Christ becomes our guest. (CCC 1387)

SAINTS OF THE WEEK

St. Ephrem, Deacon and Doctor of the Church

Feast Day: June 9th

"Virtues are formed by prayer. Prayer preserves temperance. Prayer suppresses anger. Prayer prevents emotions of pride and envy. Prayer draws into the soul the Holy Spirit and raises man to Heaven."

St. Saint Asterius of Petra, Bishop

Feast Day: June 10th

"We by no means adore the martyrs, but we honor them as the true adorers of God. We lay their bodies in rich shrines and sepulchers, and erect stately tabernacles of their repose, that we may be stirred up to an emulation of their honors. Nor is our devotion to them without its recompense; for we enjoy their patronage with God."

St. Barnabas, Apostle

Feast Day: June 11th

St. Barnabas, you were eager to join the Apostles in their Christian Faith, as they began the work of preaching the Gospel throughout the world after Christ's Ascension into Heaven. You willingly gave up worldly pursuits in order to serve God. Pray for me, that I may be zealous and devout in my Faith, as you were.

St. Blessed Maria Candida of the Eucharist

Feast Day: June 12th

"O my Beloved Sacrament, I see you, I believe in you! O Holy Faith. Contemplate with ever greater faith our Dear Lord in the Sacrament: live with Him who comes to us every day."

St. Anthony of Padua, Priest and Doctor of the Church

Feast Day: June 13th

"The creator of the heavens obeys a carpenter; the God of eternal glory listens to a poor virgin. Has anyone ever witnessed anything comparable to this? Let the philosopher no longer disdain from listening to the common laborer; the wise, to the simple; the educated, to the illiterate; a child of a prince, to a peasant."

FEASTS OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS AND THE IMMACULATE HEART OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

(June 12th and 13th)

O United Hearts of Jesus and Mary, You are all grace, all mercy, all love. Let my heart be joined to Yours, so that my every need is present in Your United Hearts. Help me to recognize and accept Your loving will in my life. Holy and Sacred Wounds of the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary, answer my prayer. Amen.

READINGS FOR THE ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

June 14, 2026

Exodus 19:2-6a

Romans 5:6-11

Matthew 9:36-10:8

PRACTICE OF CHARITY

These readings highlight for us what it means to be chosen by God for sacred relationship: whether it is the holy nation of Israel in the Old Testament, the twelve apostles of the Gospels, or the saved and justified of Paul's Letters, we can look to the many examples of times when God's people have been chosen in love even – and especially – when undeserving. As we consider being unworthy yet unconditionally loved, we must be spurred to actions that testify to the greatness of God's compassion.

† Consider when you have felt profound love, especially when you did not deserve it. How did that make you feel? How did you want to change in light of that love?

† What stories might you be able to tell of the joy of the Gospel, or of God's compassion and mercy?

† Where are some moments and spaces that might be right for you to share that witness?

THIS WEEK ON FORMED ~ JUNE 7, 2026

Bread of Life: The Eucharist in Galilee

Christ's teaching about the Eucharist is the crescendo of Jesus' entire ministry: all his work in Galilee prepared for and pointed to the Eucharist. Join Dr. Tim Gray for an exciting five-part series about Jesus' teaching on the Eucharist.

Presence

Although the Eucharist appears to be simple bread and wine, it is actually the "source and summit" of the Christian life. Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist explores the truth and beauty of Christ's real presence in the Eucharist, from its origins in Sacred Scripture, to its profound role in the life of the Church and her members. It is the crescendo of the entire story of salvation.

The Nazareth Page
A gospel meditation for your home
June 7, 2026 – Corpus Christi
John 6:51-58

The longer I live, the more I am absolutely astounded and grateful by the reality and gift of life, especially my own. While this fascination begins with an increased awareness of my own life, it certainly doesn't end there. I look around me and see life everywhere. I see life in the air I breathe. On the Earth I walk. I even see it on display in the movement of shoppers at Costco. Life is found across every surface of our planet, even in the vastness of the ocean depths.

The most pressing question in astronomy these days is whether there is life anywhere else, given that there are literally billions of places where life might exist. Even intelligent life. We haven't found life anywhere else than on Mother Earth. The odds favor extraterrestrial life. Why would God create so many places otherwise?

Coming back down to Earth, I am in awe of the abundance of living creatures, trillions of them, that are virtually everywhere we move. I am especially filled with wonder, that here on Earth, we thinking, feeling and creative creatures have accomplished so much in service of the life we have been given. Of course, there is an opposite contrasting story, but here let's just be grateful for the positives.

Today we are invited to affirm God's presence with us in the person, the body of Jesus Christ. We are also drawn to think about the presence of Jesus as continued in our own lives being enriched and nourished through the gift of the Eucharist. There we receive Jesus, whole and entire, in the sacramental forms of bread and wine. This reality of Christ among us creates the miracle of our bodily existence being supported, fed and transformed by the resurrected Jesus. He becomes part of us and we become part of him.

I have also grown in my awareness of the precariousness of life, especially human life. Currently our planet is being attacked by the Ebola virus, a deadly invader taking victims wherever it goes. Most of us recall the million victims of the COVID virus in this country alone. In other words, the gift of life is not to be taken for granted.

But the same holds true for that deeper gift of life that is ours shown especially through the coming among us of Jesus who promises us eternal life. He offers himself for us to us. Abundantly so.
